Not enough room to include artworks for N°13 (my 2024 project) on this blog

Here you can explore all received art works for my earlier projects (2016 to 2021), and the catalogues that document them.

All works received for N°13 can viewed be here: postbox to mailbox no plain art (II) (postboxtomailboxnoplainart-2.blogspot.com).

Artists whose N°13 art works have been received are listed below. This list will be updated if/when more works arrive (snail mail seems to be slower now than before!) List up-to-date as of 1 October 2024.

N°13: My 2024 Mail Art Project

My 2024 Mail Art Project

The Project & its Background:

I once stepped into the elevator of a thirty-floor building, which had no 13th floor button. Seeing the order jump from 12 to 14, I thought, "This is weird!" Had some designer or engineer made an outrageous mistake? Noticing more cases—on airplanes, for instance—I discovered the practice is widespread. But for one who's had a good relationship with 13 right from birth, this makes no sense.*

N°13 is not just synonymous with bad luck. It symbolises many things. Some even enjoy playing with the number's reputation by taking a tongue-in-cheek approach. Take Finland's National Accident Day, for instance, which promotes safety on the roads, at work and in the home. Its annual day of celebration is always Friday the 13th.

What's your take on N°13?

Let's share a laugh or a touch of dread. I invite you to put what you feel, think or believe about the number on a postcard and post it by Friday, September the 13th, using this address:

N° 13
Taivaanvuohentie 3 B 13
00200 Helsinki
Finland

Recommendations:

material must be child friendly // common postcard size (10 x 15 cm / 4 x 6 in) preferred // media: free // no jury, no fee, no return // please include contact info (email)

All works received will be exhibited at postboxtomailboxnoplainart.blogspot.com and a digital publication (catalogue) will postdate the project. Questions: 4johngayer@gmail.com

"The paradox embodied in this tale is that the 'dangerous' number hadn't disappeared. Its digits had merely been reversed to identify the highest storey. Imagine, this thirty-floor building had a 31st floor.

El espíritu del bosque sobrevuela

The spirit of the forest flies over

The spirit of the forest

As if the angel of the Lord were crossing, the land of Santiago is beautified and under the shelter of the calm night the dawn is born in the chest of the Finnish flower.

Whoever has learned to listen to trees no longer wishes to be a tree. You do not want to be more than what you are.
